

WILDER BEARS CHARMED LIFE

Man Who Was in Spanish War, in the Steamer and in Big Hotel Fire Escapes Motor-Boat Explosion with Few Burns.

(Special to The Evening World.) HOLYOKE, Mass., Oct. 13.—The charmed existence of Leslie Wilder was not terminated by the explosion of the gasoline tank of his motor-boat last night. After those who were attracted to the shore by the explosion and the light of the burning boat, had abandoned dragging the river, in the belief that the body could be recovered more readily in daylight, Wilder was found sitting on the bank of the river vigorously rubbing his head.
"I don't know how high I went, but I got a good view of the top of the moon as I was coming down," said Wilder, with an attempt to smile. The attending physician says that Wilder's injuries will prove more painful than serious.
Wilder, who is the son of Postmaster H. B. Wilder, of Mount Tom, served in the Spanish war and was mustered out of service unscathed, though his clothes were rent with a dozen bullet-holes. He was on the ill-fated Greer, and a few months later was in a hotel fire, in which he rescued a woman, the fame following him so closely that the tale of his outwary coat were burned off.

THROWN FROM STREET CAR.

Severely Injured Man Accused a Cross-Town Conductor.

William McQuinn, a salesman, fifty-six years old, of No. 512 Manhattan avenue, was removed to J.
Hood Wright Hospital early last evening, suffering from injuries received in falling or being thrown from a One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street car, near Broadway.
McQuinn told a policeman that he got into an altercation with the conductor of the car, over the payment of his fare, and that the conductor threw him off.
The man received contusions of the face, a dislocated finger, and a fracture of the nose.

HURT BY NAIL MEANT FOR MULE.

Driver Dying from Wound Inflicted by the Instrument of Torture Tied to His Lash.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CLEVELAND, Pa., Oct. 13.—W. L.
Lambson, a teamster, is dying from a wound sustained yesterday. He was driving a team of mules that balked on the Perryville bridge, Washington Grove, a blacksmith, tied a tenpony nail to the lash of a long whip with which to counsel the mule to move.
At the first swish of the lash the nail slipped and penetrated Lambson's skull above the eye. Surgeons say that Lambson cannot recover.

FALLS FOUR FLOORS, LIVES.

Child's Decent Broken by Clothes-Line and a Hammer.

Margaret Warren, four years old, slipped through a broken window pane on the fourth floor of her mother's home, No. 82 New Chambers street, last night and tumbled to the yard below. She struck several clotheslines, breaking her fall, and landed on a hammer. She sustained a severe scalp wound, a fracture of the left arm and two fractures of the right leg. She is at the Hudson Street Hospital and has a chance of recovery.

while they last, $2.00 Akabro razors for $1.00.

THEY SHAVE SMOOTHLY AND DON'T PULL.

Made of a high-grade, finely tempered German steel that holds an edge for a surprisingly long time. Better than being shaved, and think what you save! Main Floor.

Men's underwear---heavy & medium.

EVERY Fall we plan a sale of men's underwear that will establish beyond dispute the superiority of the Simpson Crawford Company's men's furnishing section. A yearly occurrence timed to keep the trend of buyers coming our way. To the great number of men in and around Greater New York who have been waiting for this event we can say that without a doubt this year's sale, which begins to-morrow, includes greater values than we have ever offered before.

You never saw these garments sold at these prices before. We recommend every garment in this sale as top quality for warmth and wear, and as there are only 400 dozen in the lot we advise you to come early if you want to be sure to get your choice in weight and size.

5,000 pairs of $1.00 new Fall kid gloves for men and women at 69c.

If the volume of business is greater in proportion to the superiority of the value we'll sell twice as many gloves to-morrow as we sold a year ago this Saturday. And it's a mighty big day to eclipse.

Every man and woman who needs a pair of high-grade dollar gloves should attend this sale to-morrow, when 5,000 pairs will be offered at 69c. A full complement of sizes and the new Fall shades prevents this event from being associated with the ordinary offering.

Men's $25.00 Winter surtouts coats at $15.50

250 Priestley cravenette coats at $10.00. 1,100 Winter suits and overcoats at $10.50.

THERE'S one thing sure about our Clothing Department, and that is, even the most particular man can find exactly what he wants at a price less than he is willing to pay, whereas it used to be that he would have to visit a dozen stores, waste a lot of time, pay MORE than he wanted to, and even then he wouldn't be absolutely satisfied.

We've reduced the clothing business to a science.
We've also reduced clothing prices to a minimum.

Take for instance, these $25.00 Surtout Coats, at $15.50. Every dressy man is aware that they are the acme of style this season. We could secure only one hundred to sell at this price, but while they last to-morrow they'll be the life of the clothing business in New York.

Of course we don't mean they are $25.00 coats from the merchant tailor's standpoint. He would say $35.00 for such a coat. They have all the style, quality and cut of the best made-to-order surtouts, and we offer them to-morrow at less than the ready-for-service price.

The fabrics are of vicunas in black and oxford. The close, tight-fitting collar—heavy lapels—form-fitting waist and a full sweep to the skirt—give that most desired effect demanded by all fashionably dressed men. Own $15.50
